HUMAN RIGHTS DEPARTMENT GOVERNMENT OF SINDH

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights reminds us that dignity, equality, and freedom belong to all. Let's build a Sindh where every person knows, claims, and enjoys their fundamental rights.

Human Rights Department
Government of Sindh.

Message :

Mr. Rajvir Singh Sodha
Special Assistant to The Chief Minister Sindh.

Human rights are not just laws written on paper they are the heartbeat of a fair and compassionate society. Every young person here today holds the power to shape a Sindh where equality, respect, and dignity are lived realities. Let's make human rights a daily practice, not just a global principle.

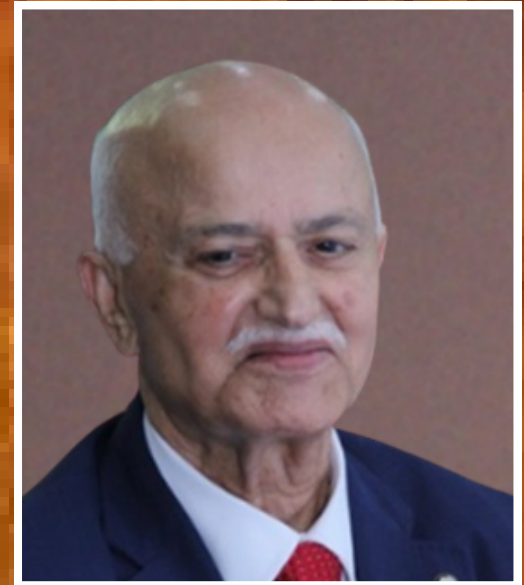

Mr. Khalid A.K Chachar
*Secretary Human Rights
Department Government of Sindh.*

Human rights embrace every field of life from education to employment, from freedom to health. Access to quality healthcare is not a privilege; it is a right. As future leaders and professionals, you must carry forward the spirit of the UDHR to ensure that no one is left behind in wellbeing, justice, or dignity.

Mr. Syed Hamza Iqbal
*The Vice Chancellor - Hamdard
Intermediate College*

At Hamdard University, we believe education is not only about knowledge but about nurturing values that uplift humanity. The Universal Declaration of Human Rights reminds us that every person has the right to live with dignity, freedom, and respect. Let this awareness inspire our students to become defenders of justice and ambassadors of peace -within Pakistan and beyond.

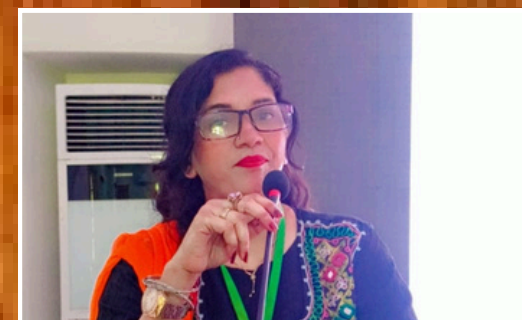

Mr. Dr. Asadullah Iarki
Dean-faculty Social Science Humanities

Human rights are not limited to law or governance they flow through every field of life, including health, education, environment, and social development. As students of social sciences, your understanding of human rights can drive real transformation in communities. Together, let's build a culture where empathy, equality, and fairness guide every profession and policy.

Audience : Health, Hope, and Humanity: The UDHR in Action.

Speakers : Dignity, Equality, Justice - For Every Human, Everywhere.

Panel Discussion:

When people know their rights, they can stand against injustice.
Together, let's promote the UDHR and ensure every citizen of Sindh lives with dignity and respect.
