HUMAN RIGHTS DEPARTMENT GOVERNMENT OF SINDH

Mr. Sodha also visited Traffic Regulation and Citation System (Faceless E-Ticketing) section, where he was given a detailed briefing on the newly introduced online E-Challan system in Karachi. He was informed about various categories of challan violations, such as seatbelt violations, mobile phone usage while driving, signal violations, and lack of Riding motorcycle without helmet.

Minimum first for motorcyclist is Rs 5000 and 10000 for car .

Half of the fine amount will be paid within 14 days . And after 21 days it will be doubled from 5000 to 10000 for a motorcyclist and from 10000 to 20000 for a car.

Ali Raza (Incharge Complaint Cell), briefed the SACM on Human Rights on the complaints mechanism and the overall redresses process across the province.

Human resource development, and equipment upgradation remain key components of the initiative. The Complaint Cell serves the community by assisting individuals in distress and safeguarding citizens' rights. It has been fully computerized and operating through an online Complaints Management System since August 2017. There are 31 district-level centers have been established across the province.

AWARDS AND HIGH-LEVEL DISCUSSIONS ON HUMAN RIGHTS INTEGRATION

HUMAN RIGHTS DEPARTMENT GOVERNMENT OF SINDH

The Honorable Special Assistant emphasized the need for collaboration between the Human Rights Department, DIGP Headquarters, and the IGP Complaint Cell to ensure effective redresser of complaints related to the police department across the province. He highlighted that the Human Rights Department has recently activated its divisional and district offices in Sindh to provide swift relief and justice to complainants.

The Human Rights Department and the Inspector General of Sindh Police have strengthened collaboration to integrate human rights principles into policing. This partnership focuses on accountability, transparency, and service recognition to ensure a safer and more rights-based Sindh.

KARACHI: Resolving citizens' complaints is the responsibility of the state. Coordination between the Human Rights Department and the police is very important in today's time. Chief Minister's Special Assistant Rajveer Singh Sodha expressed these views during his detailed visit to the IG Complaints Cell, Central Police Office, and Safe City Project in Karachi.

related to misconduct and public issues. Complaints received online or manually are processed rapidly under the special instructions of the Prime Minister and the Chief Minister. Citizens can also send their complaints to this address: aimcomplaints.cro@singhnoida.gov.in.
